

Title: Emergency Aid / Appointed Person

Aims: To train participants to emergency / appointed first aider standard

Objectives: How to respond in an emergency
Learn CPR
Importance of the recovery position
Treat major and minor conditions

Target Audience:

This course is ideal for anyone who requires a basic knowledge of first aid, it enables participants to respond to basic emergencies, and candidates are recommended to progress to the full FAW 4 day qualification.

Course Content

- Priorities and principles of First Aid
- CPR
- Recovery position
- Legal duties
- Wounds and bleeding
- Bandaging
- Use of first aid box
- Fits and epilepsy
- Respiration problems
- Your role in an emergency
- Revision
- Assessment
- Evaluations and endings

Commentary

This course is a 1 day basic introduction to first aid, it allows participants to achieve a basic competency in emergency first aid, and is assessed by the tutor on the day. Candidates will have an emergency/appointed person certificate that is valid for 3 years.