

Title: Foundation Certificate in Health and Safety in the Workplace (CIEH Approved)

Aims: To train participants in health and safety,

Objectives: Examine basic health and safety requirements
Look at risk assessments
Examine health and safety legislation
Explore legal requirements

Target Audience:

This course is for candidates who wish to develop their awareness of health and safety issues. It is certified by the Chartered Institute of Environmental health (CIEH)

Course Content

- Principles of health and safety
- Risk assessments
- Legislation
- Duty of care
- How safe is the workplace
- Conducting a risk assessment
- Audits and inspections
- Good practice
- Questions and answers
- Revision
- Assessment

Commentary

This is a 1 day course that covers basic health and safety principals, it is examined by a multi choice paper and accredited by the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health.

This course is part of a modular scheme and can be accredited for the overall advanced certificate in health and safety, as accredited by CIEH.