

Title: Certificate in Risk Assessment Principles and Practice (CIEH Approved)

Aims: To train participants in risk assessments,

Objectives: Examine principles of risk assessment
Explore how risk can be measured
Examine legal requirements
Practice risk assessments

Target Audience:

This course is for candidates who are involved in risk assessments. It is certified by the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health (CIEH)

Course Content

- Principles of risk assessment
- Legal requirements
- Risk assessments
- How to carry out a risk assessment
- Rational for risk assessment
- Examining factors
- Health and safety requirements
- Questions and answers
- Revision
- Assessment

Commentary

This course is for those who are required to carry out, or understand the importance of risk and risk assessments. It enables participants to conduct assessments in their own working environment, and develop an understanding of the legal requirements existing in today's workplace.