Target Audience:

This is mainly for companies who require a training video, or who wish to develop their own resource materials.

Commentary

We have broadcast quality filming equipment, and are able to plan, film and edit videos at affordable prices.

The product can be linked into existing training materials or used to develop new resources and we can manage the whole process from planning to delivery of a finished product.

This can be on tape or DVD format as required, and we can also provide copying facilities depending upon your requirements.

Promotional videos also developed which can be used to illustrate good practice or advertise your product / services.
